Objective (around 2 lines):	This alumni guest lecture is organised so that hands on experience of our alumni of studying and cracking the examination for Solicitor is imparted to the students and that they are made aware about this career avenue right from the beginning. The lecture on writing papers and publishing them was conducted with intention of provided the students with the skills of critically research and writing papers for upscaling their skills and profiles.
Description (Max. 250 words):	Ms. Ishani Paradkar, an alumna of our college and a solicitor herself conducted lecture on "Everything you need to know about becoming a solicitor in India". It was a very intense lecture where all the details about how to study and go about when one wants to pursue becoming a solicitor was discussed by Ishani. Ms. Siddhi Paradkar, alumna of our college and a solicitor, pursuing her second LLM degree from London now, conducted lecture on research and paper writing and publication. Both the lectures were in detail giving right knowledge and guidance to the students. There was huge response to these lectures.
Outcome (around 2 lines):	Students in first lecture got insight on taking up "Solicitor" as career option and how to go about it academically. Students in second lecture understood the
