Participation at Inter-Collegiate Events

It is not the will to win that makes you a winner, but the will to prepare to win which does.

– Robert Knight

The college has always been keen on ensuring that the students imbibe knowledge and apply the same in real life situations. It has rightly been said that there is just a small difference between those who participate, but do not win, and the ones who do not participate at all– the latter never stand a chance of winning! In keeping with the sentiment which treats participation as the stepping stone towards success, the college has always encouraged participation of students at various inter-collegiate events. It is our firm belief that right exposure provided to willing students at any stage of their academic career, always bears a great impact on the students' life as a professional, and more importantly, shapes them as better humans. Thomas Hobbes in one of his exemplary works "The Leviathan" remarked sagaciously that "Law is the Public Conscience".

The world will reduce to a plain of pandemonium, if the order of political authority gets shadowed by the sprawling wings of Anarchism. It is being said that law is in everything and everything is under law. True to these words, one of the prominent Law College, Adv. Constitution Day

“The Constitution is not a mere lawyers' document, it is a vehicle of Life, and its spirit is always the spirit of Age.”

-Dr. B. R. Ambedkar

No society, nor a social institution shall survive, if it does not invest in strengthening the foundations of its future generations. In the Indian context, it would not be an overstatement to say that any law-student in India, nay, any person having accepted this mighty nation as their home, would be bereft of their identity of an Indian in the true sense if they are not made aware of the value of the Constitution of India, in its word and spirit, for it is indeed this supreme document which serves as the grundnorm for our nation, as we see it today.

With a view to imbibe the said values, on account of Constitution Day on 26th of November, the College undertook to mark the omnipresence of spirit of the Constitution through certain events wherein the students and the faculty alike, actively took part in recognising the contribution of the Constitution in shaping the Indian legal psyche, as well as the modern Indian society.

Vaishali Gurav and Prof. Jyotsna Gore, Prof. Prajnee Sahoo, Prof. Neha Athavale visited the camp. The students readily hit the ground running, understanding the life at the village in the course of their interaction with the village Sarpanch, and engaged in a variety of activities towards their service to the village which included enlightening the villagers about the importance of menstrual hygiene, sex education, indulging in manual labour, star-gazing activity under the guidance of an expert in Astrophysics, a yoga session etc. Activities were also held at the local Zilla Parishad School.

The students also engaged in the laborious task of cleaning a local village pond. The students also got an opportunity to work closely with the members of 'Salaam Bombay Foundation', which works extensively in the field of awareness regarding the menace of addiction in the society, and were guided by the said members to spread the message among the villagers. Students pursuing Masters in Social Service from Tata Institute of Social Sciences, Mumbai, interactive session on scope of social service as a profession and also helped broaden minds to the various social issues that people are otherwise indifferent to. In the evening, all the villagers were invited for a Cultural Programme, arranged by the volunteers, who also helped the Zilla Parishad school students put up a performance at the said programme.

National Social Scheme in Adv. Balasaheb Apte College of Law, having been established only in September 2019, it was unusual for a unit as new to go for an annual N.S.S. camp, at a stage so nascent. Despite the seemingly insurmountable challenges faced, coupled with the novicehood of the students, it was indeed the unparalleled zeal to actively participate, strengthened by the genuine resolve of trying to make a difference in the lives of people who need change which truly made this camp a huge success. The activities undertaken by the volunteers at the Camp, and the exemplary magnitude of the efforts put in truly epitomised the N.S.S. Motto, 'Not Me, But You'.
