ADR Cell of Advocate Balasaheb Apte College of Law

The Alternative Dispute Resolution (ADR) Cell of Adv. Balasaheb Apte College of Law has been established to bridge the gap between theoretical knowledge and practical application by promoting awareness, skill development, and experiential learning in the field of Alternative Dispute Resolution. The Cell aims to provide students with opportunities to develop practical competencies in negotiation, mediation, conciliation, and arbitration through workshops, competitions, simulations, research activities, and interactions with ADR practitioners. It seeks to cultivate a culture of dialogue, collaborative problem-solving, and effective dispute resolution while preparing students to meet the evolving demands of the legal profession. This Cell shall be constituted by the following members for the academic year 2026-27:

This committee will have the following members:
