Instructions and Guidelines for CR/LR Elections and Campaigning

All candidates contesting the Class Representative (CR) and Ladies' Representative (LR) elections must strictly adhere to the following rules and regulations:

1. During speeches or campaigning, candidates must not criticise, insult, ridicule, make personal remarks, or pass indirect comments or taunts against other candidates.
2. Candidates must focus their speeches on their own vision, responsibilities, proposed initiatives, and how they intend to fulfil their duties as CR or LR.
3. Any form of casteist, communal, religious, regional, discriminatory, or politically motivated statement is strictly prohibited during speeches and campaigning.
4. The use, mention, promotion, support or display of political or religious symbols, flags, slogans, associations, organisations or imagery during campaigning is strictly prohibited in any form.
5. All candidates must maintain discipline, dignity, and mutual respect throughout the election process. Any form of intimidation, harassment, provocation, or misconduct will not be tolerated.
6. The above rules shall also apply to campaigning conducted through WhatsApp groups, social media platforms, and other digital communication channels.
7. Candidates must respect the freedom of students to vote according to their own preferences. No student shall be pressured, threatened, or coerced into supporting any particular candidate.
8. All candidates must follow the instructions issued by the College authorities regarding campaigning, speeches, voting procedures, and election-related activities.

Any candidate found violating the above rules shall be liable to disqualification from the election process, following a review by the Ad-Hoc Students Council.

The decision of the College authorities shall be final, subject to the applicable institutional rules.
